Axial Vinos makes 4 million € investment in its new winery in Cariñena

Axial Vinos announces plans to invest 4 million € in the development of its new winery in the Cariñena Denominación de Origen. The Spanish group has over 17 years of experience working in the wine market, being the major shareholder in two wineries of Campo de Borja and Navarra Denominaciones de Origen.

The investment is a direct result of the success of the company's Cariñena wine brands in the market such as La Granja 360, which will be joined by two new wine brand families in 2017.

The winery will cover an area of 2.800 m² and will be located in the village of Almonacid de la Sierra. It will generate 300 global jobs -direct and indirect- and a movement of 600 trucks yearly.

The goal is to produce 2.000.000 bottles every year of red, rosé and white wines elaborated with tempranillo, garnacha, syrah and macabeo grapes.

Eugenie van Ekeris, owner and director of the wine group together with Louis Geirnaerd, has introduced the winery as “a reflect of the full enjoyment of life” and its goal of projecting an image of quality, innovative and delightful wines oriented to the new consumer generations that look for new experiences.

ENGINE OF PROGRESS

Axial Vinos, a creative Company dedicated to the development and exportation of Spanish wine, is the major shareholder of other two wineries from the Denominación de Origen Campo de Borja –Bodega Pagos del Moncayo- and Denominación de Origen Navarra –Bodegas La Casa de Lúculo- and has a close relationship with other eight winery partners from the most renowned Spanish wine regions.

Spanish Wine Creativity

The Company counts on an extensive experience in the elaboration and marketing of wines, distributing more than 400.000 cases every year all over the world, being the United States its main market in which represents the 31% of the sales of wines coming from Cariñena DOP, guaranteeing its projection in an international level.

The inauguration of this new winery will represent a decisive step forward in the group strategy to consolidate its commitment for being present in the key Spanish wine regions, especially in Aragon where it is located.
